We have approved your request to pay your taxes in installments. Your first payment of $3,094.00 is due on 10/20/2020. You agreed to make future payments of $3,094.00 on the 20th of each following month until you pay the full amount.

The amount you owe as of 09/21/2020 is $237,411.30 . This amount does not include all accrued penalties and interest. We will charge applicable penalties and interest until you pay the full amount you owe, because you didn't pay your total tax when it was due.

Send your monthly payments so they reach us by the due date. Print your Social Security number or employer identification number clearly on your check or money order. If you change your address, send your new address with your next payment.

Note: If we're charging backup withholding on any of your accounts, it will continue. Having an installment agreement doesn't stop backup withholding.

Although we've established an installment plan for you, we must protect the government's interest. Therefore, we may still file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien.

MAY BE FILED IF THIS AGREEMENT DEFAULTS

A Notice of Federal Tax Lien is a public notice that the government has a claim against your property to satisfy a debt. We will release (remove) the lien when you finish paying what you owe. We have the legal right to collect this money for up to 10 years.

You owe a shared responsibility payment (SRP) because one or more members of your tax household didn't have minimum essential health coverage, per Internal Revenue Code Section 5000A. The SRP amount that you owe is not subject to a Notice of Federal Tax Lien filing, a levy on your property, or the failure-to-pay penalty. However, we charge interest on unpaid SRP balances. We may also apply your federal tax refunds to the SRP balance until it is paid in full. If you need health coverage, visit healthcare.gov to learn about health insurance options that are available for you and your family, how to purchase health insurance, and how you might qualify to get financial assistance with the cost of insurance.
