Dear DARLENE BUTLER :

Thank you for your payment. You've met the payment provisions for your Offer in Compromise (OIC) contract for the years listed on the Form 656. Please remember, we'll keep any refund, including interest, that you might be due for tax periods extending through the calendar year in which we accepted the offer.

REMINDER: Compliance is an important part of your OIC contract. You must file and pay your taxes timely for 5 years, beginning with the date of acceptance of the offer and ending through the fifth year, including any extensions to file and pay. If you don't, we may terminate your OIC contract and reinstate the original amount of your liability, less any payments made.

We're processing your lien release. It should be effective within 35 days from the date of this letter.

If you have questions, you can call [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] between 7:30 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. CST.

If you prefer, you can write to the address at the top of the first page of this letter.

When you write, include a copy of this letter, and provide your telephone number and the hours we can reach you in the spaces below. Keep a copy of this letter for your records.
