Part 3. Authorized Signature(The Installment Agreement must be signed by the taxpayer or an individual authorized to act on behalf of the taxpayer.
Generally, this is the person with the authority to sign a tax return.)

I certify that I have the authority to request an electronic debit from the account named above, and I authorize the N.C. Department of Revenue to present debit entries for the bank account and the financial institution named above. This authorization will remain in effect until the balance due has been paid, the N.C. Department of Revenue cancels the Installment Agreement, or a written notification from the Taxpayer to stop the debit transactions has been received and processed. The N.C. Department of Revenue may cancel the Installment Agreement and charge the Taxpayer a delinquent payment penalty and a collection fee if the monthly payment cannot be deducted due to insufficient funds or because the account is closed. The taxpayer will be responsible for any overdraft fees charged by the bank.

If this request is accepted by the N.C. Department of Revenue and an installment agreement is established, the following conditions apply: The agreement is based on the taxpayer's current financial circumstances and is subject to revision or termination if subsequent financial information required by the N.C. Department of Revenue reflects a change in the taxpayer's ability to pay. Failure to provide updated financial information when requested by the N.C. Department of Revenue will be reason for termination of the agreement. All State taxes and all State returns that become due during the term of the agreement must be filed on time. Any State and Federal refunds that might otherwise be due may be applied to this liability until it is satisfied. If the conditions of the Installment Agreement are not met, it will be terminated, and the entire tax liability will be due. The agreement may be terminated if collection of the Installment Agreement is denied. If collection of the Installment Agreement is denied, you will be notified if it is not approved. If you are granted an Installment Agreement and subsequently default on the terms of the agreement, you will be liable for any collection costs and expenses incurred by the N.C. Department of Revenue.
