Dear Taxpayer:

Thank you for making arrangements to resolve your account. This letter responds to your correspondence dated Oct. 24, 2022, requesting a direct debit installment agreement.

We revised your direct debit installment agreement. We'll deduct your payment of $2,000.00 on the 15th of each month.

Before we can deduct your monthly payments automatically, we must verify your account information.

We scheduled your first automatic withdrawal payment to be deducted from your checking account on Feb. 15, 2023. If this payment withdrawal doesn't happen as planned, allow one more month before contacting us to report any problems.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT YOUR INSTALLMENT AGREEMENT

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

You must meet all conditions of your installment agreement. If you don't, your installment agreement could go into default and we may terminate it and take enforcement action to collect the full amount of the tax liability. Enforcement action could include filing a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (which notifies your creditors of our lien against your property) or placing a levy on your wages or bank accounts. If we terminate your installment agreement or pursue any enforcement actions, you'll have Collection Appeal rights through the Collection Appeals Program (CAP) (see Publication 1660, Collection Appeal Rights, for complete information). If we terminate your installment agreement and you later apply for and receive reinstatement, you'll have to pay a reinstatement user fee.

If you are a low-income taxpayer, the reinstatement user fee is reduced. As a low-income taxpayer, you would qualify for a waiver of
